Sometime between January and May of 2018 an unknown suspect broke into ten homes in the North County area of San Diego to include Mira Mesa, Rancho Bernardo and Poway. The suspect entered the residences by breaking the rear sliding glass doors. He then proceeded straight into the master bedrooms where he stole jewelry, cash, and high end purses. During one of the burglaries the suspect stole thirty federal savings bonds which he cashed at local banks in Oceanside and Vista.

The suspect has worn a construction worker disguise during all ten burglaries. Pictures of the suspect can be seen on page 2 of this release. Those pictures were taken from a surveillance camera when the suspect was cashing the stolen savings bond.
